

Allan Lambert, Board Member

Allan moved to Sun City with his wife, Susan, from Houston in 2001. He spent many of his younger years in the Air Force, then had many wonderful years working as a tennis teaching professional before finding his calling in executive recruitment, specializing in the energy industry. He is Vice President of Watkins & Associates, ranked 6th in executive recruitment in Houston. While in Houston, he served as a Deacon at Second Baptist Church and Director of their on-going Career Development Program. He started a first ever Citizens-On-Patrol program in his Houston neighborhood and helped stop crime in that area. He currently works in a satellite office here in Sun City and continues to serve energy clients worldwide. Allan has served on the SCTTA (tennis association) Board, Chair of the Sports Committee, was a founding member of the Citizens Council and is currently a Contributing Editor for Sports for the Williamson Sun (City Week insert). His hobbies are tennis, golf, bowling and competitive pistol shooting. He competes in tennis leagues and tournaments and his team won the National 60's Men's Doubles in Kansas City in 2005.
