

John Winslow, Chairman Emeritus Citizens Council

John and Sally Winslow moved to Sun City five years ago from Dallas. John has been involved in the technology industry since 1965 and is still active in his businesses in Austin, Dallas and Houston. John is a former Marine and is actively involved in the Marine Corps charities in Dallas. When not traveling up and down I-35, he plays golf (not enough), and serves as Chairman of the Citizens Council. He served on the Special Projects Committee for the Community Association (CA) from 2005 -2007. Upon retiring from the Citizens Council Board of Directors, John was elected Chairman Emeritus in honor of his contributions to founding the Council.
